CLARIFICATION OF PRESS ARTICLES – AN UPDATE

Reference is made to the clarification announcement of Global Green Tech Group Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) dated 11 December 2007 (“First Announcement”) in relation to certain newspapers articles in Hong Kong reporting on the safety of the Group’s “Marjorie Bertagne” (MB) brand skincare products. It was stated in the First Announcement that the Company was seeking legal advice to protect its interest.

The board of directors of the Company (the “Board”) wishes to update the public on the progress of the legal action taken by the Group. The Company (together with its subsidiary, Bio Beauty Group Limited) has instructed its legal advisers to issue a demand letter to Ming Pao Enterprise Corporation Limited and Ming Pao Daily News on 17 December 2007 demanding for, among other matters, an apology declaration to be made by such corporation and newspaper.

The Board emphasizes that the Group’s “Marjorie Bertagne” (MB) brand skincare products had been tested by an international reputable testing laboratory and proved that chromium was not detected. The Board wishes to reiterate that all of the Group’s MB brand skincare products comply with the hygienic standard of European Commission, the People’s Republic of China and safety requirements under the Consumer Goods Safety Ordinance in Hong Kong. The Board will take all necessary legal action to protect the interests of the Group.
