CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS APPOINTMENT OF ING BANK N.V. AS INDEPENDENT FINANCIAL ADVISER AND NOTICE OF DESPATCH OF SHAREHOLDERS' CIRCULAR

Background

PCCW Mobile holds approximately 79.35% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this Announcement and therefore is a substantial shareholder and connected person (as defined in the Listing Rules) of the Company. Accordingly, members of the PCCW Group are connected persons of the Company under the Listing Rules and transactions between the Group and the PCCW Group constitute connected transactions for the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Following the acquisition by PCCW Mobile of a controlling interest in the Company, and the Company thereby becoming an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of PCCW, the Board has conducted a detailed analysis of the mobile telecommunications market in Hong Kong and reviewed the Company's current strategic business model and the viability of various alternative options available to the Company.

The Hong Kong Mobile Telecommunications Market

The Hong Kong mobile telecommunications market is intensely competitive with six operators providing 2G networks and four operators licensed to provide 3G networks. The market has seen some merger and acquisition activity which appears to signal a move towards fewer, but larger, operators. This trend can also be seen in markets overseas. Another possibility is that surviving operators are likely to seek to provide a wider range of services beyond mobile telecommunications as the industry attempts to provide "converged" voice, data, video and media services. In the light of these developments, the Board considers it positive that the Company has become part of the PCCW Group since PCCW is the premier provider of telecommunications services in Hong Kong and has developed a successful pay TV business.

The Company's Current Business Model

Before its acquisition by PCCW Mobile, the Company pursued a business model based on providing solely mobile telecommunications services directly to retail consumers. The Company had established a modest 2G business on this basis and had been investing to extend its range of services to encompass 3G services. Nonetheless the Company remained the smallest of all the mobile operators in Hong Kong — with a market share of less than 10%. To be successful with its 3G investments, the Company would need a relatively rapid adoption of 3G services by customers. Additionally, 3G technology has been difficult to stabilise; suitably attractive handsets for customers have been slow to emerge; and, generally, the previously held assumptions about the 3G market's development have proven to be overly optimistic not only in Hong Kong but globally.

In light of the delays to 3G and taking into account the apparent trend towards consolidation in the Hong Kong mobile telecommunications market, the Board has conducted a review of the options available to the Company and has decided to leverage the PCCW Group's premier position to develop a more robust business model in future. In particular, this will mean that the Company's services and networks will be accessible to more potential customers given PCCW's large, and established, customer base. The Board believes this move is important for the Company if it is to survive in a market increasingly populated by large players capable of delivering converged services.

The Company's Future Business Model

Under the proposed business model, the sale of 3G product offerings to consumer and commercial customers and 2G services to commercial customers will be undertaken by the Group in conjunction with the PCCW Group. The Group will continue with its existing 2G business, selling its 2G product offerings directly to its existing target market, which consists principally of retail consumer customers. The Group will also commence a new line of business being the wholesale of 2G product offerings to the PCCW Group for resale to its substantial commercial customer base, to support the PCCW Group's 3G product offerings, and for bundling with various other telecommunications products and services of the PCCW Group. The Group will also commence another new line of business acting principally as a wholesaler of 3G products to the PCCW Group, with the PCCW Group reselling those 3G products, improved with content acquired by the PCCW Group, directly to customers. These arrangements are expected to facilitate the rapid growth of two new lines of business for the Group and to enable the Group to access the substantial commercial customer base of the PCCW Group, a market sector in which the Group has historically been largely inactive, and to access the wide range of content which is available to the PCCW Group. The PCCW Group will bear the costs of launching a 3G product offering, which are substantial and otherwise would be prohibitive for the Group having regard to its current financial position. The PCCW Group's product offerings will be positioned in the market as premium products with advanced functionality and other features which integrate with the PCCW Group's existing wide range of telecommunications and media products and services. The PCCW Group will not be offering 2G products to the retail consumer market, except to the extent that a customer requests a subsidiary 2G product to support the principal PCCW Group 3G product, or for bundling with other products and services of the PCCW Group such as fixed line products and services and HOW TV. The Group will also outsource certain business functions to the PCCW Group to facilitate the implementation of the proposed business model described above.

Continuing Connected Transactions

In order to facilitate the implementation of the proposed business model, the Group has entered into a variety of transactions with the PCCW Group relating to various aspects of the Group's telecommunications business, each constituting a continuing connected transaction of the Company under Rule 14A.14 of the Listing Rules. In the case of each continuing connected transaction, an Annual Cap has been set on the annual value of that continuing connected transaction.

The Board is satisfied that each of the proposed continuing connected transactions is on normal commercial terms and that entering into those transactions is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Shareholders' Circular, which will be despatched to the Company's shareholders on 10 April 2006, contains a letter from the Independent Directors comprising the Independent Board Committee, in which the Independent Board Committee have expressed their opinion that the terms of the proposed continuing connected transactions which require Independent Shareholders' approval under Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Board considers that the adoption of the proposed business model described above and the approval of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement will bring a number of key benefits to the Group.

Anticipated Key Benefits

The Group's existing business is principally providing 2G mobile telecommunications services to the retail consumer segment in Hong Kong and, as at 31 December 2005, the Group had approximately 738,000 subscribers, of whom the vast majority are retail consumer subscribers. Under the proposed business model, the Group will continue its existing 2G business in substantially the same form, principally focusing on the retail consumer market. Having said that, there are no restrictions whatsoever on the Group from also marketing its 2G services to commercial customers, although this has not been the Group's target market historically.

Build out of the Group's 3G mobile telecommunications network has been substantially completed, but the number of subscribers, prior to the recent campaign launched in conjunction with PCCW, was negligible and limited only to a trial launch of the 3G data card. In terms of subscribers and revenue, the Company has historically had no meaningful 3G business, notwithstanding that it has held its 3G licence since 2001 and has incurred the capital expenditure and time required to roll out a 3G network. Prior to the recent campaign launched in conjunction with PCCW, the Company had only approximately 50 3G subscribers under the trial launch of the 3G data card and, accordingly, the revenue generated from the Company's 3G business was negligible. In contrast, as at 31 December 2005, the Company has incurred total capital expenditure of approximately HK$658 million to build out its 3G network. The 3G mobile telecommunications market in Hong Kong is highly competitive and, accordingly, the Company must carefully consider how best to now commence its 3G business and position itself in a competitive market to maximize revenues and profits.

The Board considers that the future of the Group's 3G mobile telecommunications business is best served by the Group adopting a wholesale business model, by partnering with PCCW as a wholesaler to the PCCW Group. In this way, the Group is able to:

- leverage the PCCW Group's existing premium customer base, to rapidly grow the Group's 3G business, in respect of which a considerable amount of capital expenditure has already been incurred;
- reduce costs by avoiding the additional costs incurred in a retail business model and outsourcing the provision of a range of services to the PCCW Group. As described below in this Announcement, these services include network management, IT services, handset purchases, distribution services, billing and payment management, property management, logistics and procurement services; and
- leverage the PCCW Group's existing service platform, to improve service quality of the Group and to cater for increased sales volume in the future.

The continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement also reflect an overall medium to longer term shift by the Group to an outsourcing model, designed amongst other things to:

- enable the Group to obtain better terms from equipment and other suppliers, by combining its purchasing power with that of the PCCW Group;
- reduce the costs of, among other things, administration, network management, IT, handset purchases, distribution, billing and payment management, property management, logistics, procurement and corporate services by taking advantage of the economies of scale which can be derived from outsourcing the provision of those services to the PCCW Group (rather than maintaining the necessary infrastructure and resources to provide those services itself) or from purchasing products from third parties in conjunction with the PCCW Group, thereby benefiting from the combined purchasing power of the Group and the PCCW Group; and
- improve service quality of the Group and to cater for increased sales volume in the future.

The Company's previously announced continuing connected transactions

The Company previously made announcements on 29 July 2005 and 12 January 2006 relating to certain continuing connected transactions between members of the Group and members of the PCCW Group. A number of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement will, if approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, supersede and replace certain continuing connected transactions previously announced in the July Announcement and in the January Announcement. By the same token, a number of continuing connected transactions previously announced in the July Announcement and in the January Announcement will continue in full force and effect in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreements summarised in the relevant announcement. Accordingly, Part B ("Overview") of this Announcement provides information on:

- the July Announcement;
- the status of the continuing connected transactions described in the July Announcement;
- the January Announcement;
- the agreements referred to in the January Announcement which are to be superseded by agreements described in this Announcement (this is set out in tabular form, to assist shareholders); and
- the continuing connected transactions referred to in the January Announcement which will continue in accordance with the terms of the relevant agreements summarised in the January Announcement.

Part B of this Announcement also describes proposed increases of the Annual Caps for certain agreements described in the January Announcement. Those agreements will remain in full force and effect in accordance with their respective terms summarised in the January Announcement, but it is proposed that, subject to the approval of the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, the Annual Caps for the year ending 31 December 2006 applicable to those agreements will be increased.

The Company's continuing connected transactions now subject to Independent Shareholders' approval

Part C ("Continuing Connected Transactions Conditional on Independent Shareholders' Approval") of this Announcement summarises the continuing connected transactions which are conditional on Independent Shareholders' approval. The three categories of transactions listed in Part C of this Announcement relate to (i) the provision of telecommunications services and/or products by the Group to the PCCW Group, (ii) the purchases made by the Group from the PCCW Group and (iii) the provision of services by the PCCW Group to the Group. When aggregated on that basis, the relevant percentage ratios (as defined in the Listing Rules) applicable to the Annual Caps in respect of each category of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval exceed 2.5% and, therefore, each of those continuing connected transactions is conditional on prior approval by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, in accordance with the requirements of Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules.

The Company has established the Independent Board Committee, consisting of the Independent Directors, to advise shareholders of the Company as to whether the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval are fair and reasonable, whether such transactions are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and to advise Independent Shareholders how to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting convened to consider those continuing connected transactions. The Company has appointed ING Bank N.V. as the Independent Financial Adviser required to be appointed under Rule 14A.21 of the Listing Rules, to make recommendations to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders as to whether the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval are fair and reasonable, whether those transactions are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and to advise Independent Shareholders how to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Company will despatch the Shareholders' Circular to the Company's shareholders containing:

- the information required by the Listing Rules in relation to the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval, including further details of the operative terms of the agreements summarised in Part C of this Announcement;
- a separate letter from the Independent Board Committee advising the Company's shareholders that, in the opinion of the Independent Board Committee formed after taking into account the recommendations of the Independent Financial Adviser, the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval (including the applicable Annual Caps) are fair and reasonable and that those transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and advising shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions to approve those continuing connected transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- a separate letter from the Independent Financial Adviser, ING Bank N.V., containing its advice to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders that, having considered the matters set out in detail in the letter from ING Bank N.V., the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval (including the applicable Annual Caps) are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and advising Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions to approve those continuing connected transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) at the Shareholders' Meeting; and
- a notice convening a meeting of the Company's shareholders to be held in the Conference Room, 14th Floor, PCCW Tower, TaiKoo Place, 979 King's Road, Quarry Bay, Hong Kong on Wednesday, 26 April 2006 at 3:00 p.m., at which meeting resolutions will be proposed to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps described in this Announcement.

Under Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules, any connected person of the Company with a material interest in the continuing connected transactions is required to abstain from voting at the Shareholders' Meeting on the resolutions approving the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps. Accordingly, PCCW Mobile and its associates will abstain from voting at the Shareholders' Meeting on those resolutions, in respect of the shares it holds representing approximately 79.35% of the issued share capital of the Company. All other shareholders of the Company are entitled to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting on the resolutions proposed to approve the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps.

PART A

BACKGROUND AND OVERALL RATIONALE FOR THE CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Background

PCCW Mobile holds approximately 79.35% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of this Announcement and therefore is a substantial shareholder and connected person (as defined in the Listing Rules) of the Company. Accordingly, members of the PCCW Group are connected persons of the Company under the Listing Rules and transactions between the Group and the PCCW Group constitute connected transactions for the Company under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

Following the acquisition by PCCW Mobile of a controlling interest in the Company, and the Company thereby becoming an indirect non-wholly owned subsidiary of PCCW, the Board has conducted a detailed analysis of the mobile telecommunications market in Hong Kong and reviewed the Company's current strategic business model and the viability of various alternative options available to the Company.

The Hong Kong Mobile Telecommunications Market

The Hong Kong mobile telecommunications market is intensely competitive with six operators providing 2G networks and four operators licensed to provide 3G networks. The market has seen some merger and acquisition activity which appears to signal a move towards fewer, but larger, operators. This trend can also be seen in markets overseas. Another possibility is that surviving operators are likely to seek to provide a wider range of services beyond mobile telecommunications as the industry attempts to provide "converged" voice, data, video and media services. In the light of these developments the Board considers it positive that the Company has become part of the PCCW Group since PCCW is the premier provider of telecommunications services in Hong Kong and has developed a successful pay TV business.

The Company's Current Business Model

Before its acquisition by PCCW Mobile, the Company pursued a business model based on providing solely mobile telecommunications services directly to retail consumers. The Company had established a modest 2G business on this basis and had been investing to extend its range of services to encompass 3G services. Nonetheless the Company remained the smallest of all the mobile operators in Hong Kong — with a market share of less than 10%. To be successful with its 3G investments, the Company would need a relatively rapid adoption of 3G services by customers. Additionally, 3G technology has been difficult to stabilise; suitably attractive handsets for customers have been slow to emerge; and, generally, the previously held assumptions about the 3G market's development have proven to be overly optimistic not only in Hong Kong but globally.

In light of the delays to 3G and taking into account the apparent trend towards consolidation in the Hong Kong mobile telecommunications market, the Board has conducted a review of the options available to the Company and has decided to leverage the PCCW Group's premier position to develop a more robust business model in future. In particular, this will mean that the Company's services and networks will be accessible to more potential customers given PCCW's large, and established, customer base. The Board believes this move is important for the Company if it is to survive in a market increasingly populated by large players capable of delivering converged services.

The Company's Future Business Model

Under the proposed business model, the sale of 3G product offerings to consumer and commercial customers and 2G services to commercial customers will be undertaken by the Group in conjunction with the PCCW Group. The Group will continue with its existing 2G business, selling its 2G product offerings directly to its existing target market, which consists principally of retail consumer customers. The Group will also commence a new line of business being the wholesale of 2G product offerings to the PCCW Group for resale to its substantial commercial customer base, to support the PCCW Group's 3G product offerings, and for bundling with various other telecommunications products and services of the PCCW Group. The Group will also commence another new line of business acting principally as a wholesaler of 3G products to the PCCW Group, with the PCCW Group reselling those 3G products, improved with content acquired by the PCCW Group, directly to customers. These arrangements are expected to facilitate the rapid growth of two new lines of business for the Group and to enable the Group to access the substantial commercial customer base of the PCCW Group, a market sector in which the Group has historically been largely inactive, and to access the wide range of content which is available to the PCCW Group. The PCCW Group will bear the costs of launching a 3G product offering, which are substantial and otherwise would be prohibitive for the Group having regard to its current financial position. The PCCW Group's product offerings will be positioned in the market as premium products with advanced functionality and other features which integrate with the PCCW Group's existing wide range of telecommunications and media products and services. The PCCW Group will not be offering 2G products to the retail consumer market, except to the extent that a customer requests a subsidiary 2G product to support the principal PCCW Group 3G product, or for bundling with other products and services of the PCCW Group such as fixed line products and services and HOW TV. The Group will also outsource certain business functions to the PCCW Group to facilitate the implementation of the proposed business model described above.

Continuing Connected Transactions

In order to facilitate the implementation of the proposed business model, the Group has entered into a variety of transactions with the PCCW Group relating to various aspects of the Group's telecommunications business, each constituting a continuing connected transaction of the Company under Rule 14A.14 of the Listing Rules. In the case of each continuing connected transaction, an Annual Cap has been set on the annual value of that continuing connected transaction.

The Board is satisfied that each of the proposed continuing connected transactions is on normal commercial terms and that entering into those transactions is in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Shareholders' Circular, which will be despatched to the Company's shareholders on 10 April 2006, contains a letter from the Independent Directors comprising the Independent Board Committee, in which the Independent Board Committee have expressed their opinion that the terms of the proposed continuing connected transactions which require Independent Shareholders' approval under Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole. The Board considers that the adoption of the proposed business model described above and the approval of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement will bring a number of key benefits to the Group.

Anticipated Key Benefits

The Group's existing business is principally providing 2G mobile telecommunications services to the retail consumer segment in Hong Kong and, as at 31 December 2005, the Group had approximately 738,000 subscribers, of whom the vast majority are retail consumer subscribers. Under the proposed business model, the Group will continue its existing 2G business in substantially the same form, principally focusing on the retail consumer market. Having said that, there are no restrictions whatsoever on the Group from also marketing its 2G services to commercial customers, although this has not been the Group's target market historically.

Build out of the Group's 3G mobile telecommunications network has been substantially completed, but the number of subscribers, prior to the recent campaign launched in conjunction with PCCW, was negligible and limited only to a trial launch of the 3G data card. In terms of subscribers and revenue, the Company has historically had no meaningful 3G business, notwithstanding that it has held its 3G licence since 2001 and has incurred the capital expenditure and time required to roll out a 3G network. Prior to the recent campaign launched in conjunction with PCCW, the Company had only approximately 50 3G subscribers under the trial launch of the 3G data card and, accordingly, the revenue generated from the Company's 3G business was negligible. In contrast, as at 31 December 2005, the Company has incurred total capital expenditure of approximately HK$658 million to build out its 3G network. The 3G mobile telecommunications market in Hong Kong is highly competitive and, accordingly, the Company must carefully consider how best to now commence its 3G business and position itself in a competitive market to maximize revenues and profits.

The Board considers that the future of the Group's 3G mobile telecommunications business is best served by the Group adopting a wholesale business model, by partnering with PCCW as a wholesaler to the PCCW Group. In this way, the Group is able to:

- leverage the PCCW Group's existing premium customer base, to rapidly grow the Group's 3G business, in respect of which a considerable amount of capital expenditure has already been incurred;
- reduce costs by avoiding the additional costs incurred in a retail business model and outsourcing the provision of a range of services to the PCCW Group. As described below in this Announcement, those services include network management, IT services, handset purchases, distribution services, billing and payment management, property management, logistics and procurement services; and
- leverage the PCCW Group's existing service platform, to improve service quality of the Group and to cater for increased sales volume in the future.

The continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement also reflect an overall medium to longer term shift by the Group to an outsourcing model, designed amongst other things to:

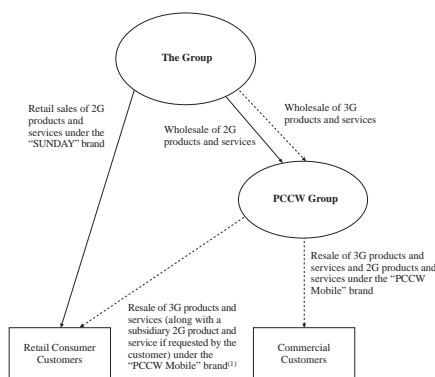

- enable the Group to obtain better terms from equipment and other suppliers, by combining its purchasing power with that of the PCCW Group;
- reduce the costs of, among other things, administration, network management, IT, handset purchases, distribution, billing and payment management, property management, logistics, procurement and corporate services by taking advantage of the economies of scale which can be derived from outsourcing the provision of those services to the PCCW Group (rather than maintaining the necessary infrastructure and resources to provide those services itself) or from purchasing products from third parties in conjunction with the PCCW Group, thereby benefiting from the combined purchasing power of the Group and the PCCW Group; and
- improve service quality of the Group and to cater for increased sales volume in the future.

Resolution of Potential Competition Issues

As referred to above in this Announcement:

- The Group will continue with its existing 2G business, selling its 2G product offerings directly to its existing target market, which consists principally of retail consumer customers. The PCCW Group will not be selling a standalone 2G product to retail consumer customers in any circumstances. Accordingly, the PCCW Group will not be competing with the Group in relation to 2G products and services marketed to retail consumer customers, which is the Group's existing target market.
- In relation to 3G products and services, the Group will adopt a wholesale business model, under which it will act as a wholesaler of 3G products and services to the PCCW Group. The PCCW Group will then resell those 3G products and services, improved with content acquired by the PCCW Group, directly to customers. The wholesale business model to be adopted by the Group is a standalone and sustainable business in its own right and is complementary to, and not competitive with, the PCCW Group's reseller business model in relation to 3G products and services. Growth of the PCCW Group's 3G reseller business will inevitably and directly lead to growth in the Group's 3G wholesale business.
- In relation to the sale of 2G products and services to commercial customers, the Group will also adopt a wholesale business model. This reflects the fact that the Group currently has very few commercial customers and historically the Group has found it extremely difficult to penetrate the commercial customer segment. The PCCW Group, on the other hand, has an existing substantial commercial customer base, to whom 2G and 3G product offerings can be marketed. Accordingly, the adoption by the Group of a 2G wholesaler business model in the context of sales to commercial customers is again complementary to, and not competitive with, the PCCW Group's reseller business model for this market segment. Growth of the PCCW Group's 2G reseller business will directly lead to the development of a new business for the Group, to a sector of the market which has historically proved to be unattainable for the Group.
- In terms of the potential migration of 2G customers to 3G products and services, this is a feature of advances in mobile telecommunications technology which the Group will face in any event as customers are expected to gradually shift from 2G to 3G technology offering enhanced features and performance. Following a detailed analysis of the mobile telecommunications market in Hong Kong and the viability of various alternative options available to the Group, including incurring the substantial costs of launching its own 3G offering to retail consumer customers, the Board is of the view that in principle the wholesale business model described above is in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

Note (1): If so requested by the customer, may include a subsidiary 2G product to support the principal PCCW 3G product or bundled with other products and services of the PCCW Group such as fixed line products and services and HOW TV.

Overview of Outsourcing

The table below shows the existing business functions of the Group which will be retained by the Group and those which will be outsourced to the PCCW Group, if the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' approval are approved by the Independent Shareholders and the other continuing connected transactions referred to in this Announcement are implemented.

Functions retained by the Group

- CEO and Executive Office
- Operations, comprising:
 - Retail sales
 - Retail marketing and operation support
 - International services
 - Administration and logistics support
- Information technology
- New technologies
- Finance, fraud and credit control

Functions outsourced to the PCCW Group

- Network management
- Corporate services
- Call centre management
- Systems integration and operations
- Distribution services
- Handset purchases
- Billing/Payment management
- Property management
- Logistics support and procurement services

Outsourcing is an extremely common feature of a broad spectrum of business sectors, including the telecommunications sector. A number of the Group's competitors also employ elements of outsourcing in their business models, in order to reduce costs and improve financial performance in the context of a fiercely competitive market.

Following the implementation of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement, 277 of the 840 employees employed by the Group as of 31 January 2006 would continue to be employed by the Group in its retained business units, while 563 employees would transfer to the PCCW Group in connection with the functions to be outsourced to the PCCW Group. Of those 563, 248 transferring employees are based in Shenzhen and are principally engaged in "back office" administration and the operation of the Group's call centre which deals with customer enquiries.

It is important to note that:

- the Group will continue with its existing 2G business, with some of the support functions relating to that business being outsourced to the PCCW Group; and
- the Group will be commencing two new lines of business, by operating as a wholesaler of principally 3G but also 2G products and services to the PCCW Group. The wholesale business model is a recognised business model in the industry, as an alternative to a pure retail play, and will be incremental to the Group's existing 2G business.

In relation to this overall shift to an outsourcing model, the Board considers that the terms of the agreements to be entered into in relation to the continuing connected transactions and the provisions of the Listing Rules which are applicable to transactions between the Group and the PCCW Group are sufficient to ensure that the pricing and other terms of the outsourcing arrangements are, and will continue to be, in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.

General

The terms and conditions of each of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement are on normal commercial terms, have been settled on an arm's length basis and are no less favourable to the Group than those obtainable from or offered to independent third parties.

None of the continuing connected transactions described in this Announcement are exclusive. Accordingly, the Group is free to endeavour to market 2G and 3G products and services to any market segment, including both retail consumer customers and commercial customers. If at any time the Board considers that selling 3G products and services pursuant to a retail sale business model would be more profitable, there are no restrictions on the Company proceeding to do so. Similarly, the Group can appoint additional or alternative providers of outsourcing services and/or terminate the provision by the PCCW Group of one or more outsourcing services, in accordance with the respective terms of the relevant agreements described below.

PART B OVERVIEW

Reference is made to the July Announcement and the January Announcement relating to certain continuing connected transactions between members of the Group and members of the PCCW Group.

1. The July Announcement

The July Announcement referred, among other things, to:

2. Status of continuing connected transactions described in the July Announcement

- Subject to the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval being approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, the arrangements relating to the provision of leased circuits referred to in paragraph 1(a) above described in the July Announcement will be superseded and replaced by the Mobile Network Management Services Agreement described in paragraph 11 of Part C of this Announcement and the existing agreements will be terminated.
- The arrangements relating to the provision of interconnection capacity to the Group referred to in paragraph 1(b) above described in the July Announcement will continue to be provided under the Extended Deluxe Package Agreement for Interconnect Capacity dated 12 May 2005 described in paragraph 8(i) of Part C of this Announcement, which pre-dates PCCW Mobile having acquired a controlling interest in the Company and will continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, subject to the amendments described in paragraph 8(i) of Part C of this Announcement. In addition, the Flexible Bandwidth 1.5Mbps Service Agreement and the Video Link Circuit Agreement referred to in paragraphs 8(ii) and (iii) respectively of Part C of this Announcement are each new agreements. Also in relation to interconnection:
 - payment by the Group of the mobile interconnection (PNETS) charges, mobile number portability (MNP) and local access charges (LAC), which are each charged in accordance with OFTA prescribed rates, will continue to be payable in accordance with those rates, as referred to in paragraph 8(iv) of Part C of this Announcement; and
 - miscellaneous local data services charges and local telephone services charges which are each payable in accordance with the relevant tariffs of HKTC from time to time will be payable as referred to in paragraph 8(v) of Part C of this Announcement.

Independent Shareholders will be asked to approve an increase in the amount of the Annual Caps in respect of the arrangements described above relating to interconnection at the Shareholders' Meeting.

- The distribution services arrangements referred to in paragraph 1(c) above expired on 31 December 2005 and were replaced by the agreements referred to in paragraph 3(a) below under the heading "The January Announcement".

PART C CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS CONDITIONAL ON INDEPENDENT SHAREHOLDERS' APPROVAL

The following agreements and/or the proposed Annual Caps in respect of them are conditional on Independent Shareholders' approval being obtained at the Shareholders' Meeting.

Section I - Provision of telecommunications services and/or products by the Group to the PCCW Group

The transactions relating to the provision of telecommunications services and/or products by the Group to the PCCW Group include the following:

- Wholesale of 2G and 3G mobile telecommunications services to the PCCW Group;
- 2G and 3G Content Delivery Support;
- Distribution Services;
- Sponsorship Program;
- Distribution Services for BlackBerry;
- Sale of Mobile Plans; and
- Agency Services.

Details of these transactions and relevant agreements as well as their respective proposed Annual Caps are set out below.

1. Wholesale of 2G and 3G mobile telecommunications services to the PCCW Group

The following agreements supersede and replace the agreements relating to the wholesale of 2G and 3G mobile telecommunications services by the Group to the PCCW Group as referred to in the January Announcement and in paragraph 3(b) of the section headed "Overview" of Part B of this Announcement:-

Agreements: (1) 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement dated 7 April 2006
(2) 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement dated 7 April 2006

Parties: Agreement (1): Mandarin; and
HKTC
Agreement (2): SUNDAY 3G; and
HKTC

Effective Date:

In each case, the first business day after the date on which the condition precedent is satisfied.

Condition Precedent:

Each agreement is conditional upon the agreement and the proposed Annual Caps in respect of that agreement being approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting. The agreements are not conditional on the 2G and 3G Content Delivery Support Agreements described in paragraph 2 below coming into effect.

Rationale:

Mandarin and SUNDAY 3G have respectively agreed to wholesale certain 2G and 3G mobile telecommunications services to HKTC.

The 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement provides for Mandarin to sell to HKTC on a wholesale basis Mandarin's 2G mobile telecommunications services (including local and roaming (outbound) airtime, SMS, IDD, GPRS, MMS, VAS and other services) (the "2G Mobile Services") for reselling by HKTC under the "PCCW Mobile" brand name to commercial customers of HKTC, or to provide a subsidiary 2G product to support a principal PCCW Group 3G product, or for bundling with other products or services of the PCCW Group such as fixed line products and services and ILOW TV.

The 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement provides for SUNDAY 3G to sell to HKTC on a wholesale basis SUNDAY 3G's mobile telecommunications services (including local and roaming (outbound) airtime, SMS, IDD, GPRS, MMS, VAS and other services) (the "3G Mobile Services") for reselling by HKTC under the "PCCW Mobile" brand name to commercial and consumer customers.

Terms:

The payment/pricing terms are as set out below and the other terms are described in the Shareholders' Circular.

(a) In relation to the 2G Mobile Services, HKTC must pay to Mandarin the sum of the following charges:

Monthly Usage Charge

Monthly usage charges for various services, including local airtime charges, roaming (outbound) airtime charges, SMS fees, IDD fees, GPRS, MMS, VAS and other services fees, which are to be charged at retail rates with volume discounts and other fees to be charged at cost with percentage mark-up and/or calculated based on the agreed unit rate as set out in the agreement and amount of usage with discounts to be applied to the level of spending with certain minimum fees. The unit rates are determined by reference to the retail rate and the rate charged to mobile virtual network operators.

The volume discounts offered range from 5% to 25% for most services and a discount of up to 40% is offered for GPRS local services. Certain of the volume discount rates are determined based on third party benchmarks. Certain of the volume discount rates for the acquisition of larger volumes are unprecedented because the Group has not previously offered such services on a wholesale basis, and therefore those volume discount rates are not based on any precedent discount offered. The volume discount is calculated to take into account and include consumption and spending under both the 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement and the 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement. The charges described above are subject to HKTC's monthly minimum commitment of HK$500,000 under the agreement.

Support Services Fee

- Billing support fee, comprising a fixed monthly amount as well as a per customer charge, which are determined by reference to costs incurred in the provision of such services;
- Sales administration, after-sale support, customer data processing and customer service hotline fees, comprising a fixed monthly amount as well as a per customer charge, which are determined by reference to costs incurred in the provision of such services;
- Mobile number portability support fee, which is charged at actual cost to Mandarin; and
- SIM card production fee, which is charged at actual cost to Mandarin plus 10% mark-up.

Other Fees

The contribution by HKTC to the annual licence fee payable to OFTA by Mandarin shall be in the amount of a charge per customer or at such other rates as determined by OFTA from time to time.

(b) In relation to the 3G Mobile Services, HKTC must pay to SUNDAY 3G the sum of the following charges:

Monthly Usage Charge

Monthly usage charges for various services, including local airtime charges, roaming (outbound) airtime charges, SMS fees, IDD fees, GPRS, MMS, VAS and other services fees, which are to be charged at retail rates with volume discounts and other fees to be charged at cost with percentage mark-up and/or calculated based on the agreed unit rate as set out in the agreement and amount of usage with discounts to be applied to the level of spending with certain minimum fees. The unit rates are determined by reference to the retail rate and the rate charged to mobile virtual network operators.

The volume discounts offered range from 5% to 25% for most services and a discount of up to 40% is offered for GPRS local services. There are no precedent rates for the determination of the 3G charges and as such, the charges and volume discounts were mostly determined based on the 2G charges and volume discounts. The volume discount is calculated to take into account consumption and spending under both the 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement and the 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement. The charges as set out in the schedule to the agreement are subject to and conditional upon HKTC's annual minimum commitment in an amount equal to the amount of the annual licence fee payable by SUNDAY 3G to OFTA with respect to its mobile carrier licence in accordance with the Telecommunications (Carrier Licences) Regulation (Cap. 106V) of the laws of Hong Kong. In case of early termination of the agreement, the annual minimum commitment shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis.

Support Services Fee

- Billing support fee, comprising a fixed monthly amount as well as a per customer charge, which are determined by reference to costs incurred in the provision of such services;
- Sales administration, after-sale support, customer data processing and customer service hotline fees, comprising a fixed monthly amount as well as a per customer charge, which are determined by reference to costs incurred in the provision of such services;
- Mobile number portability support fee, which is charged at actual cost to SUNDAY 3G; and
- SIM card production fee, which is charged at actual cost to SUNDAY 3G plus 10% mark-up.

Other Fees

The contribution by HKTC to the annual licence fee payable to OFTA by SUNDAY 3G shall be in the amount of a charge per customer or at such other rates as determined by OFTA from time to time.

Duration:

The 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement is for a term of 3 years from the Effective Date unless terminated earlier by either party by not less than 6 months written notice.

The 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement is for a term of 3 years from the Effective Date subject to earlier termination by HKTC by not less than 9 months written notice provided that such notice shall not be issued by HKTC before the expiry of the first 9 months from the Effective Date or by SUNDAY 3G by not less than 6 months written notice.

The Content Delivery Support Agreements ensure that content provided by or with the authority of HKTC can be delivered to the ultimate consumers of the 2G and 3G services, in conjunction with the airtime acquired under the 2G and 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreements described in paragraph 1 above.

Mandarin will issue invoices to HKTC at such intervals as both parties may from time to time agree.

(b) Under the 3G Content Delivery Support Agreement, HKTC shall pay to SUNDAY 3G an annual support service fee which is a fixed fee determined by reference to costs incurred and the parties agree to review annually the level of the support services fee payable under the agreement. SUNDAY 3G will issue invoices to HKTC at such intervals as both parties may from time to time agree.

Duration:

The agreement relating to the delivery of 2G content is for a term of 3 years from the Effective Date unless terminated by either party by not less than 6 months written notice or if the 2G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement is terminated (i) in whole or (ii) in respect of specific services and such termination of specific services shall cause the provision of the 2G content delivery support to be impossible, impractical or unfeasible.

The agreement relating to the delivery of 3G content is for a term of 3 years from the Effective Date subject to earlier termination by HKTC by not less than 9 months written notice provided that such notice shall not be issued by HKTC before the expiry of the first 9 months from the Effective Date or by SUNDAY 3G by not less than 6 months written notice or if the 3G Wholesale Mobile Services Agreement is terminated (i) in whole or (ii) in respect of specific services and such termination of specific services shall cause the provision of the 3G content delivery support to be impossible, impractical or unfeasible.

As referred to in the January Announcement, Mandarin has appointed NSL to act as one of its distributors for the distribution, promotion and sale of Mandarin's services and certain consumer products in Hong Kong, pursuant to two agreements each dated 10 January 2006 and expiring on 31 December 2006. The original terms of those agreements are summarised in the January Announcement but the following agreements supersede and replace the agreements referred to in the January Announcement and in paragraph 3(a) of the section headed "Overview" of Part B of this Announcement:

The two sums shall be set off against each other with the balance payable by the relevant party to the other within 60 days after the issuance of the report.

The commissions payable under the agreement comprises the following:

- Activation commission, which is calculated by reference to a fixed unit commission rate per activation depending on the type of activation where the fixed unit commission rate is determined based on existing offers to other independent distributors.
- Loyalty commission, plan commission and VAS commission which are paid based on number of month(s) of the subscription and payable in amounts comparable to existing offers to other independent distributors but plans with monthly tariffs of less than HK$50 per month are not eligible for such loyalty commission.
- Target commission, which is calculated by reference to a fixed unit commission rate per activation depending on monthly number of activations and where the fixed unit commission rate is determined based on existing offers to other independent distributors.

Mandarin has the absolute discretion to fix, adjust or vary the retail price of the products. NSL is entitled to retain the difference between the price paid to Mandarin and the retail price. NSL shall pay for the products at the wholesale price of the products, being at a specified percentage of the retail price. The difference between the wholesale price and the retail price shall be the commission to which NSL is entitled. The specified percentage discount on retail price and the percentage rebate are based on and are comparable to discounts and rebates offered to existing distributors. - IDD Wholesale Services; and

Details of these transactions and relevant agreements as well as their respective proposed Annual Caps are set out below.

8. Interconnection Capacity and Charges

There are several agreements relating to interconnection capacity and charges. In addition, the PCCW Group provides certain interconnection services at rates prescribed by OFTA and also offers to provide certain interconnection services on the general terms and conditions published by the PCCW Group. Interconnection capacity is required by mobile operators to enable users of mobile telephones to call and interconnect with mobile or fixed line telephones of another operator. Accordingly, interconnection agreements are vital for the continuation of the Group's business in any form and the Group would not be able to continue with its business in the absence of interconnection arrangements with the PCCW Group. The regime relating to interconnection capacity and charges is described below in this paragraph 8.

(i) Interconnection Agreement

Agreement: Extended Deluxe Package Agreement for Interconnect Capacity dated 12 May 2005, which, as referred to in the July Announcement, pre-dates PCCW Mobile having acquired a controlling shareholding interest in the Company, as amended by an amendment letter dated 7 April 2006

Parties: Mandarin; SUNDAY 3G; and HKTC

Effective Date:

The agreement was entered into before PCCW Mobile became a shareholder of the Company, when transactions between the Group and the PCCW Group were not connected transactions of the Company for the purposes of the Listing Rules. The agreement came into effect on 1 May 2004 and was amended on 7 April 2006, subject to the satisfaction of the condition precedent in the amendment letter, to ensure that the term of the agreement does not exceed three years from the first business day after the date of the Shareholders' Meeting.

Condition Precedent:

The amendment letter is conditional upon the Extended Deluxe Package Agreement for Interconnect Capacity dated 12 May 2005 as amended by the amendment letter and the proposed Annual Caps in respect of the agreement (as amended by the amendment letter) specified below being approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The agreement is a pre-existing agreement and is currently effective and in force. However, it is intended that if the agreement (as amended by the amendment letter) and the proposed Annual Caps in respect of the agreement (as amended by the amendment letter) are not approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting and if the continuation of the agreement would constitute a breach of the Listing Rules, the agreement will be discontinued and/or replaced by alternative arrangements.

Subject to the relevant mobile operator complying with the agreement and maintaining at least 220 IDA E1 Systems there will be a discount adjustment of a range of specified percentages, depending on the contract period. The recurrent charges do not include the per minute usage charge set out in HKTC's tariff. There are also other charges including variation charges and cancellation charges. Most of the charges are calculated by reference to and will not be more than the gazetted rates published by HKTC. The relevant discounts are determined by reference to and are comparable to those offered to other customers of HKTC. The IDA base rate, installation charges and relocation charges are subject to adjustment if at any time the percentage change in the CPI(A) Index for Hong Kong exceeds 10%.

Mandarin

Effective Date:

The Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter was entered into on 10 January 2006. The Effective Date of the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter is the first business day after the date on which the condition precedent is satisfied.

Condition Precedent:

The Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter is conditional upon the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) and the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) and the proposed Annual Caps in respect of the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) and the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) specified below being approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter is a pre-existing agreement and is currently effective and in force. However, it is intended that if the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) and the proposed Annual Caps in respect of the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) and the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) are not approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting and if the continuation of the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter would constitute a breach of the Listing Rules, the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter will be discontinued and/or replaced by alternative arrangements.

Rationale:

HKTC to grant Mandarin a licence to occupy a portion of the telephone exchange in Lai Chi Kok, Kowloon owned by HKTC as office space. The Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter amends the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter by amending the term of the licence to be granted and the assignment provisions.

Terms:

The payment/pricing terms are as set out below and the other terms are described in the Shareholders' Circular.

Mandarin has a right of access to the site to enable Mandarin to design, coordinate and implement the fitting out works, in consideration for which Mandarin pays a fitting out administration fee of HK$209,576 per month. The fitting out administration fee is determined based on the shared costs of the premises. Upon the granting by the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department of the approval relating to the licensing of the premises, a formal licence agreement will be entered into by the parties on and in accordance with the terms of the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) whereby Mandarin will pay to HKTC such licence fee at a market value prescribed in or otherwise derived from the approval from the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department.

At the Shareholders' Meeting, the Independent Shareholders will also be asked to approve Mandarin entering into the formal licence agreement referred to above, on the terms also referred to above.

Duration:

The term of the licence to be granted under the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) shall commence on the date on which the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department has granted its approval for the licence until 3 years from the first business day after the date of the Shareholders' Meeting unless (i) terminated earlier by either party by 6 months written notice provided that no such notice shall be served during the first year from the commencement date or (ii) the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department has revoked the approval granted or such approval has expired and no renewal or further approval is granted in relation to the remaining term of the licence or if the licence is otherwise terminated in accordance with the terms of the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter).

It is also anticipated that further agreements similar to the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) and the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) may be entered into by the Group with the PCCW Group in the future in the event the directors of the Company consider that further space is required at any telephone exchange of HKTC. Such further offer letters and/or licence agreements to be entered into will be on terms which are comparable with and no less favourable than terms obtained by the Group from independent third parties. At the Shareholders' Meeting, Independent Shareholders will be asked to approve the Group entering into those further agreements in the future if the directors of the Company consider that further space is required at any telephone exchange of HKTC, provided that the amounts payable in aggregate under the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter), the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) and those further agreements shall not exceed the Annual Caps as specified below in respect of the arrangements referred to in this paragraph 22.

The agreement commences on the Effective Date and shall continue for 3 years unless terminated earlier by not less than 6 months written notice by any party.

Proposed Annual Caps

The proposed Annual Caps and relevant bases for such Annual Caps for the transactions relating to the provision of services by the PCCW Group to the Group are as follows:

- 31 December 2006:	HK$181,000,000
- 31 December 2007:	HK$226,000,000
- 31 December 2008:	HK$256,000,000

Mandarin and Cascade are not currently party to a network management services agreement. Accordingly, the amounts of the proposed Annual Caps are based on estimates provided by the parties, taking into account and determined by reference to:

- (a) the historical costs for the Group to operate its own network;
- (b) the 3G network roll-out and the anticipated network expansion;
- (c) the new lines of business operated by the Group as a wholesaler for both 2G and 3G products and services to the PCCW Group; and
- (d) the amount paid to the PCCW Group to acquire transmission capacity including leased circuits for 2005.

Annual Caps for Call Centre Management Services referred to in paragraph 12 above for the year ending:

- 31 December 2007:	HK$90,000,000

The amounts of the proposed Annual Caps are based on amounts paid to date under the existing call centre management services agreement described in the January Announcement and taking into account and determined by reference to:

- (a) the historical costs for the Group to operate the call centre services on its own;

The Annual Caps have been determined by reference to the estimated costs (including the labour costs, the supply of telecommunications lines and rack spaces) of the provision of the relevant services as specified by the Group, the respective charging rates offered to other customers of PCCW Powerbase and amounts paid to date under the systems integration and operations services agreement dated 10 January 2006 referred to in the January Announcement.

- 31 December 2008:	HK$5,000,000

The amounts of the proposed Annual Caps are based on the space currently occupied by the Group, the future demand and the apportionment of the costs based on the estimated space occupied.

Annual Caps for the Licences in respect of Telephone Exchanges referred to in paragraph 22 above for the year ending:

- 31 December 2006:	HK$4,000,000
- 31 December 2007:	HK$6,000,000
- 31 December 2008:	HK$7,000,000

The amounts of the proposed Annual Caps are based on the aggregate annual fees payable for the two telephone exchanges with a contingent amount to cater for additional fees in respect of further space that may be required at any telephone exchange of HKTC if considered appropriate by the Board.

The fitting out administration fee as currently specified is determined based on the shared cost of the premises. Upon the granting by the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department of the approval relating to the licensing of the premises, a formal licence agreement will be entered into by the parties on and in accordance with the terms of the Yau Tong Offer Letter (as amended by the Yau Tong Amendment Letter) or the Lai Chi Kok Offer Letter (as amended by the Lai Chi Kok Amendment Letter) as applicable, upon which Mandarin will pay to HKTC such licence fee at a market value prescribed in or otherwise derived from the approval from the Director of Lands and/or the Lands Department. Section IV - Implications of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval under the Listing Rules

The three categories of transactions listed in Part C of this Announcement relate to (i) the provision of telecommunication services and/or products by the Group to the PCCW Group, (ii) the purchases made by the Group from the PCCW Group and (iii) the provision of services by the PCCW Group to the Group. When aggregated on that basis, the relevant percentage ratios (as defined in the Listing Rules) applicable to the Annual Caps in respect of each category of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval exceed 2.5% and, therefore, each of those continuing connected transactions is conditional on prior approval by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, in accordance with the requirements of Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules.

The Company has established the Independent Board Committee, consisting of the Independent Directors, to advise shareholders of the Company as to whether the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval are fair and reasonable, whether such transactions are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and to advise Independent Shareholders how to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting convened to consider those continuing connected transactions. The Company has appointed ING Bank N.V. as the Independent Financial Adviser required to be appointed under Rule 14A.21 of the Listing Rules, to make recommendations to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders as to whether the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval are fair and reasonable, whether those transactions are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and to advise Independent Shareholders how to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting.

The Company will despatch the Shareholders' Circular to the Company's shareholders containing:

- (a) the information required by the Listing Rules in relation to the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval described in this Announcement;
- (b) a separate letter from the Independent Board Committee advising the Company's shareholders that, in the opinion of the Independent Board Committee formed after taking into account the recommendations of the Independent Financial Adviser, the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval are fair and reasonable and that those transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and advising shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions to approve those continuing connected transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) at the Shareholders' Meeting;
- (c) a separate letter from the Independent Financial Adviser, ING Bank N.V., containing its advice to the Independent Board Committee and the Independent Shareholders that, having considered the matters set out in detail in that letter, the terms of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval (including the applicable Annual Caps) are fair and reasonable and are in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole and advising Independent Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions to approve those continuing connected transactions (including the applicable Annual Caps) at the Shareholders' Meeting; and
- (d) a notice convening a meeting of the Company's shareholders to be held in the Conference Room, 14th Floor, PCCW Tower, TaiKoo Place, 979 King's Road, Quarry Bay, Hong Kong on Wednesday, 26 April 2006 at 3:00 p.m., at which meeting resolutions will be proposed to consider and, if thought fit, approve the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps described in this Announcement.

Under Rule 14A.18 of the Listing Rules, any connected person of the Company with a material interest in the relevant transaction is required to abstain from voting at the Shareholders' Meeting on the resolutions approving the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps. Accordingly, PCCW Mobile and its associates will abstain from voting at the Shareholders' Meeting on those resolutions, in respect of the shares it holds representing approximately 79.35% of the issued share capital of the Company. All other shareholders of the Company are entitled to vote at the Shareholders' Meeting on the resolutions proposed to approve the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval and the applicable Annual Caps.

As referred to above, further details relating to the operative terms of the agreements summarised in Part C of this Announcement are contained in the Shareholders' Circular which will be despatched to the Company's shareholders on 10 April 2006 and will also be available on the Company's website.

A number of the agreements in respect of the Transactions Requiring Independent Shareholders' Approval referred to above will, if approved by the Independent Shareholders at the Shareholders' Meeting, continue for a period of three years and, therefore, expire in April 2009. However, the Annual Caps in respect of those agreements being sought by the Company at the Shareholders' Meeting will only apply up to 31 December 2008. The Company confirms that it will comply with the applicable requirements of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules in relation to those agreements in respect of the period after 31 December 2008 up to the expiry date of each of the relevant agreements.
